McClintock-Swan

Spartanburg, Aug. 31.—At the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. S. J. Nesbitt, on South Converse street, on Thursday afternoon at 6 o'clock, Miss Elizabeth McClintock was married to P. P. Swan by Dr. J. S. Watkins, of this city. While Miss McClintock made her home in Spartanburg, her efficiency and popularity gave her calls all over the state. Her charming personality and sunny disposition in the sick room won her many life-long friends who regret greatly to give her up.

She was the youngest daughter of the late Capt. William A. and Frances Nesbitt McClintock, of Ora.

Mr. Swan is a young lawyer of Birmingham, Ala., and they will make their home in that city.

For Miss Sullivan

On Saturday afternoon, Mrs. E. W. Copeland charmingly entertained with a Forty-Two party in honor of Miss Mary D. Sullivan, one of the fall brides. The house was artistically decorated with flowers and the color scheme of yellow was carried out in the three rooms where cards were enjoyed. After a number of interesting games, cards were laid aside and a delicious salad course was served by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Hatton and Mrs. J. G. Sullivan, the bride's mother.

A Birthday Party

Little Louise Roper entertained a number of her little friends at a birthday party on Friday, it being her fourth birthday. The house was decorated with ferns and cut flowers. After the children played several games they were invited into the dining room where delicious refreshments were served, the color scheme, pink and white, being carried out in the refreshments. In the center of the dining table was a large cake with the pink and white candles burning.

Little Louise received a number of presents from her family and little friends. When the afternoon was spent all the guests departed wishing the little hostess many more happy birthdays.

Reception by Mrs. Reid

Mrs. M. Frank Reid was hostess at a beautiful reception Wednesday afternoon, from five to seven, in honor of Mrs. Pierce W. Price and Mrs. T. J. Langley, mother and sister of Mr. Carter Price, whose marriage to Miss Lucy McPhail took place Thursday.

The three rooms of the lower floor were thrown open and most effectively decorated by Mrs. James F. Harney with asters in pastel shades banked with ivy.

The guests were received at the door by Mrs. James Harney and Mrs. Rice Nickels, and from there passed to the receiving line composed of Mrs. Reid, her mother, Mrs. W. H. McPhail, her sister, Miss Lucy McPhail, a bride-elect, and Miss Lucy Sullivan, another bride of the fall. At the end of the receiving line Mrs. Cecil Roper and Miss Elizabeth Childress entertained the guests.

In the dining room Mrs. J. C. Owings and Mrs. C. M. Clarke cut cake and ice cream, while Miss Maude MacJessee, Mrs. T. C. Bolt and Miss Sarah Sitgreaves served. Entertaining in the dining room were Misses Rebecca Clarke and Elizabeth Young.

Misses Jule Childress and Virginia Barksdale ushered the guests into the living room where punch was served by Misses Mary Owens and Eloise Clardy, who were assisted in entertaining by Misses Bruce Owings and Virginia Sullivan.

Johnson-Zimmerman

The following account of the marriage of Miss Mary Johnson to Mr. James M. Zimmerman will be read with especial interest in Laurens. Mrs. Zimmerman is very popular in this city, having spent her early girlhood here and since then being a frequent visitor.

Spartanburg, Sept. 10.—A marriage of statewide interest was that of Miss Mary Johnson and James M. Zimmerman, which event took place Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the Central Methodist church.

The altar was decorated with ferns and ivy over a background of white. Prior to the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Mr. Turnipseed, Mesdames W. C. Cooke, DuPre Burnett and Horace Bohar rendered a violin trio, followed by solos by Miss Marie Dean and Donald Sanders. To the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Warren DuPre, the ushers, Chester Ward, James Earle, Hartwell Anderson and Charles Arent, entered from the side aisles and stood at the altar side.

The bridesmaids and groomsmen entered, first Miss Bessie Allen of Greenville and Gregg Galbraith; Miss Alice Irwin and Jack Burnett, Miss Mattie Mae Arent and Roy Watson of Ridge Spring, Miss Mary DuPre with Harry Johnson, Miss Rachel Macauley and William Zimmerman; Miss Fay Wright with Paul Simpson. Mrs. J. T. Johnson, Jr., and Mrs. Chester Ward were the dames of honor. Miss Hattie Boyd was maid of honor. She was followed by little Bettie Greer and Joe Everett, Jr., who carried quaint flower bouquets.
